FJAA SHOW RULES

FJAA SPRING FIELD DAY SATURDAY, MAY 13, 2017

- We will follow the NJAA and FJAA rules for this show
 - » Please visit angus.org for the national rules
- Exhibitors must be the registered owner of the animal prior to the 2017 Spring Field Day and Show
- Exhibitors must be current members (completed the 2017 Membership Application and paid dues) of the Florida Junior Angus Association to participate in the show and contests
- The categories of the show include:
 - » Cow/Calf Pairs (Bred & Owned, Owned combined)
 - » Heifers (Bred & Owned, Owned combined)
 - » Bred & Owned Bulls
 - » Owned Bulls
- Each exhibitor is responsible for having his/her animal(s) presented in its natural conformation and structure without alteration, except for the grooming of hair and hooves. Any product administered internally or used externally to alter the conformation and/or appearance of an animal for exhibition is prohibited. This includes:
 - » the covering of white skin
 - » false tail heads (or use of any false hair)
 - » use of graphite, powders help or other similar substances externally
 - » any steroids, growth stimulants or artificial filling internally
 - > Any animal found to be in violation of the above rule will forfeit all awards and premiums and may be disqualified from exhibiting at future FJAA sponsored shows
- All animals entered in the state shows are subject to visual inspection and/or laboratory , including DNA and blood testing for drugs. Punishment may include suspension from FJAA , or expulsion
- No exhibitors, individuals assisting exhibitors or member owners at such show shall be allowed to use any coloring agents, on any animal exhibited. The FJAA may adopt and implement various tests designed to monitor this prohibition, including but not limited to a “white towel” or “white glove” test
- All animals exhibited will be required to have health certificates showing proper health records and test required
 - » Health certificates will be required for entry in all FJAA shows
 - » Health papers will be checked at each show prior to entry in the barn
- Proof of registration must be presented when your animal is checked in
 - » A bill of sale or reflection of ownership must also be presented at time of check in
- Tattoos may be checked upon entry in all FJAA shows
 - » Cattle with tattoos not legible may not be allowed to show
- Members shall follow all the General Rules and Policy Statement as published by the American Angus Association
- FJAA reserves the right to randomly select 2 cows at each state show for DNA and blood testing for illegal substances. By entering your cattle at the state show, you are giving your permission to the FJAA to blood test your cow. Exhibitors will be notified of the results as soon as they are available
- Class breaks will be at the discretion of the FJAA Advisor
- All bulls 12 months of age or older MUST have a nose ring in place with a lead attached to participate in the bull sl
- Cattle that cannot be handled will not be permitted to participate
- Stalls are to be cleaned and free of all hay/straw and organic matter as well as any garbage/debris in your area prior to departure
 - » There will be a fine of $40.00 enforced if an exhibitor is found in violation of this rule
